

I oppose the proposed Do Not E-mail Registry. I support efforts to control spam, but the registry would impose costly compliance burdens on trade associations and their members.